

Janine Puma

Bilingual Coordinator, Easton English School at Trinity Cathedral

Janine, a clinical social worker, joined the Trinity Cathedral family as the bilingual coordinator of the Easton English School. She holds both a Master's and Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Salisbury University. Janine began her career as a bilingual interpreter for Talbot County Public Schools and later worked at For All Seasons, Inc. as a clinical social worker. During her time there, she gained extensive experience working with the immigrant community. She honed her skills in creating inclusive learning environments for both children and adults and developed a deeper sense of cultural humility and competence.

Passionate about working with this community, Janine is dedicated to helping students achieve their full potential. She believes in the power of language as a tool for building bridges and expanding opportunities. In her role at Easton English School, she aims to create a supportive and engaging environment for all learners.

Janine lives in Easton, Maryland with her husband, Mariano, her son Max, and daughters Kristen and Emma, their little Maltipoo, Honey and their Bernedoodle, Bear. In her free time, she enjoys walking the dogs, spending time with her children, solving crossword and jigsaw puzzles and watching good movies. She is very happy to be a part of the Eastern Shore and the Trinity Cathedral family.
