

Carleen Webb recently moved to the Eastern Shore after a long career in the Washington, DC area as an organist, singer, conductor and teacher. She taught choral music in Fairfax County (VA) public schools for 20 years while maintaining an active career as a singer with numerous choral ensembles, as well as serving as a professional singer with the St. Alban's Episcopal Church (DC). In her capacity as a conductor, Carleen took several choirs to England and Germany. Prior to moving to Easton, Carleen was the Music Director at Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) in Fairfax, Virginia for 10 years. She received her Bachelor of Music in Organ and Masters in Choral Conducting.
